

Vardhman PODAR LEARN SCHOOL

Part Of Podar Education Network (Since 1927)

=> According to the 2010 "Right to Free and Compulsory Education Rules",: Every school under its control that is not independent must form a school management committee within six months of the appointed date and reconstitute it every two years.

1. Parents or legal guardians of children must make up 75% of the School Management Committee's membership.
2. No more than 50% of women should be part of the Committee.
3. Further, provided that parents or guardians of children who belong to disadvantaged groups and weaker sections will receive proportionate representation.
4. The following individuals will comprise the remaining 25 per cent of the School Management Committee's membership.
 - o A third of the members will be chosen from among the elected local authority officials;
 - o A third will come from among the school's instructors, a third will come from local educators and students enrolled in the school, and the Committee's parents will choose a third.
5. School Management Committee chooses a Chairperson and Vice Chairperson from among its parent members to lead its operations. The ex-official Member-Convener of the School Management Committee should be the Head Teacher of the School or, in the absence of a Head Teacher, the Senior Most Teacher of the School.
6. In cases where a panchayat has two or more schools, the president of the panchayat will serve on the School Management Committee of one of the schools, and ward members will serve on the School Management Committee for the remaining schools.
7. The School Management Committee must meet at least once every month, and all proceedings must be fully documented and made public
